Superheroes

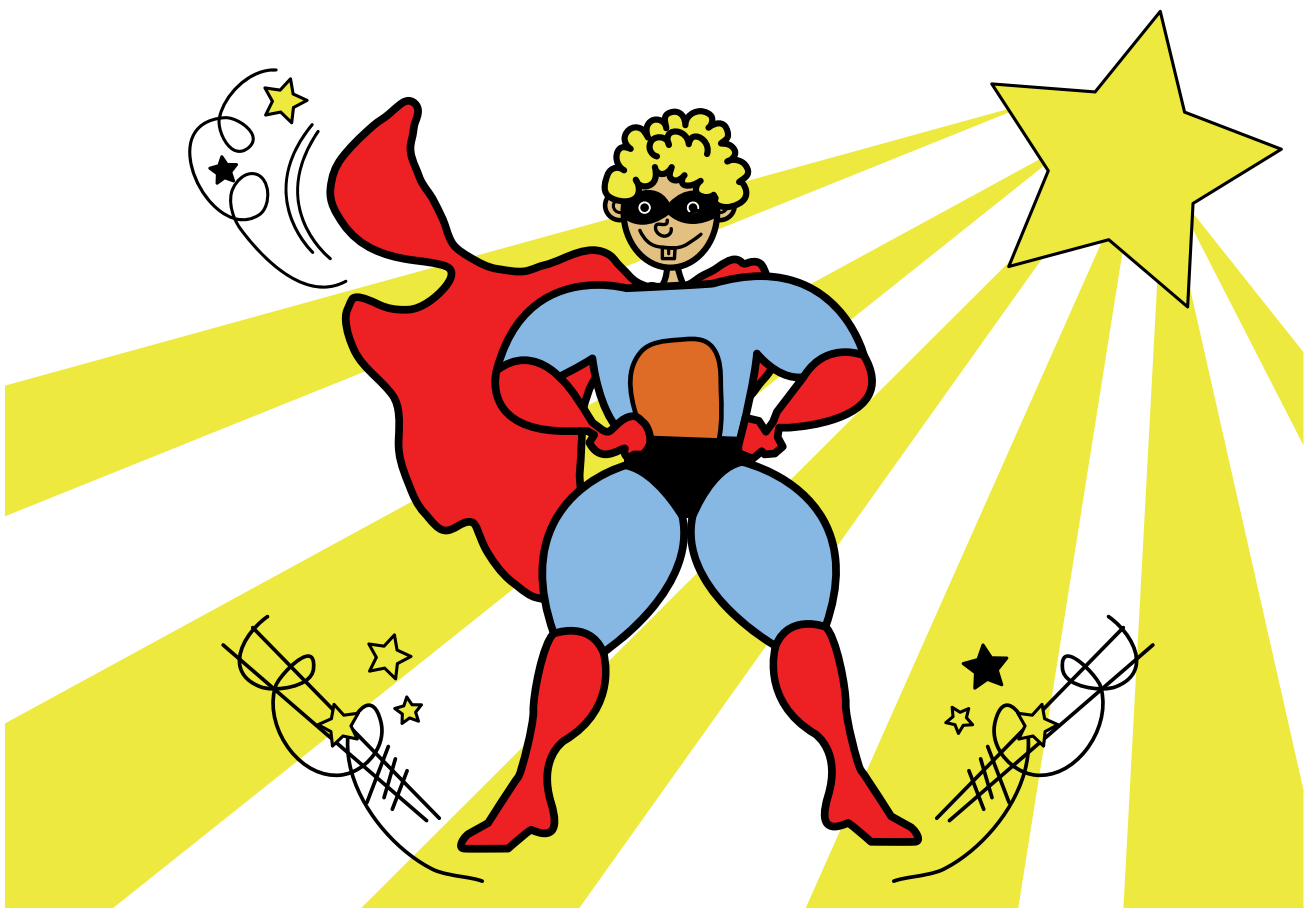

Superhero

What is a superhero?

A superhero is usually a type of rescuer with superhuman or supernatural powers. A superhero often has superpowers like superhuman physical strength, incredible speed and high resistance to pain. It may also have equipment that allows him to perform feats.

It also often has a dual identity: that of a normal person and that of a secret superhero. It almost always has a superhero costume he abandoned when he resumed his ordinary individual activities.
